In the quiet tone of grass
the trees go rusty
under the needs of birds

with moss and ivy
and the weight of eyes heavy from the beautiful sight

everything looks beautiful
heavy from the beautiful sight
everyone's minds boggled

a rose bush moves slightly in the wind
a brown pole through the grass

a snake slithers down the hill
the river rushes past

stalking beetles through the grass
feeding plants of all sizes
