Ode to the Pond

The pond is like two eyes.
I don't think any bikers come down here the wise one said. The bullfrogs the birds, and the blue sky are all connected by the pond. The bullfrog croaks like a cow's moo in the pond.
Blue shirt, red shorts, brown top, red bottom are what two people are wearing by the pond.
Cattails stems, weeds and grass are all by the pond. Java wake up and live is an old coffee cup by the pond.
The storm drain is bumpy by the pond.
Birds chirping and bullfrogs croaking are sounds you can hear by the pond. Wind blowing is another sound you can hear if it is windy by the pond.
On the way to the pond you can see sagebrush and a willow. There is algae on the pond. On some parts of the pond, you can see blue water.
Over all pond how old are you? How old is your water?
