

The Unfound Object

Alexa Olsen, Grade 6

Twin Falls

Where in this world is my talisman? The object that keeps me safe from grasping arms, that never wants to let me go.

The object that makes your face brighten, your courage strengthen, and your personality shine bright as the stars.

Without it I might lose my way, make wrong decisions, and have as much luck as an upside down horseshoe on a wall. I have to find it soon and I have to find it fast or else something might creep up behind me and snatch me before I can.
