

Places

Faith Hunt, Grade 5

Idaho Botanical Garden

A purple smudge smeared across
a child's face
in the lunchroom.

A long scar
stretched across
a skate boarder's knee
in the skatepark.

A footprint
placed in a concrete sidewalk
in the park.

A bunch of graffiti
scribble across
a wall
of an abandoned house.

So many places
to see. All will be gone
sometime soon.
